

Naetura came to life in Andalusia in 1999 offering a natural skin care alternative to conventional cosmetics, inspired by ancient beauty secrets and rituals from around the world and bringing them together in harmony with the protection of the environment.

Driven by its tradition in ecological, humane and humanitarian principles, Naetura introduced in 2008 the first ever Ecocert organic certified bath & skin care line from Spain. Ecocert is the world leading independent organic auditor and certification.
